BODY FOUND.

WETASKIWIN, Nov. 28th.

The remains of a man were found on the old Stony reserve about four miles west of Ponoka, on Monday last. Inspector Snyder, of Edmonton, being notified came down on Tuesday's train to make an investigation. The body is supposed to be that of a German named Bremish, who wandered from his home during the summer while insane. When found the body was dressed only in shirt and pants, and is supposed to have been dead three months. The body was buried to-day.

The name of the Emperor William, of Germany, has been mentioned as available as an arbitrator of the British Venezuela dispute if Lord Salisbury's answer to arbitrator Bayard proves favorable to arbitration.

THE BULLETIN is obliged to correct an item of last issue in which it was stated that Mrs. Bellamy had the first tubercle to bloom in Edmonton. Mrs. F. D. Fortin claims that distinction, having had a fine tubercle in bloom in October last.

MAILS, express and passengers were ferried across the river on Monday night and Tuesday morning in the open water above the electric light station. The mails had to be carried up and down the steep cut bank at Martin's coal mine, about 100 feet. This is the seventh round trip of the mails by row boat this fall.

THE C. P. R. has reduced the freight on grain from Fort William to New York from 35c. to 30c. per 100 pounds which with a readjustment of terminal charges means a reduction of 45c. a hundred. The rate to St. John, N. B., is made 38c. per 100 pounds. This is a substantial reduction, and will be gladly welcomed as an addition to the terribly low price of wheat in Manitoba and the west.

THE C. P. R. company advertise their usual winter excursions to Eastern Canadian points and Great Britain to commence on Monday next, Dec. 2nd, and continue until December 31st. The rate from Edmonton to Toronto, Montreal and all points east and return is $69.60. Tickets are good for three months and stop off. Tourists cars on all trains.

CAMILLE VERSTRAETE returned on last Monday's train from the southern ranches where he has purchased three car loads of horses for Belgium. The horses were purchased chiefly from the Quorn, Waldron and Stimson ranches, and are Clydes and Percherons, weighing from 1,400 to 1,600 pounds. They will be shipped to New York about December 20th. Mr. Verstraete brought a fine span of drivers with him from the south to be broken on his farm at St. Albert before being taken to Belgium.

SOME eastern papers are worrying over a question regarding the wood buffalo of the north. They have become possessed of the idea that the wood buffalo is not of the same species as the prairie buffalo; but is of the type of an animal now extinct which once lived in the forests of Germany and was known as the auroch. They may make their minds easy. The wood buffalo is in every particular identical with the prairie buffalo, and the time when the herds of the north were cut off from those of the south is so little remote as to be a matter within the personal knowledge of living men and not a matter of tradition. These papers speak of the wood buffalo inhabiting a sub-Arctic region, which indicates that they have confused the wood buffalo with the musk ox, a totally different animal. The region of the wood buffalo, although much further north than the plains of the Saskatchewan, is very little more severe in climate, and is indeed a partly prairie region. The musk ox roams over the moss grown Barren grounds both within and without the Arctic circle, and is remarkable enough looking to entitle it to almost any name that scientists or others may choose to call it. It has some points of resemblance to the yak of Tibet.

THE Salvation army is all alive and actively engaged in preparing for its annual self-denial week, which takes place throughout Canada from November 30th to December 7th inclusive. Large sums of money have been raised in past years, and it is a wonderful testimony to the army's development and activity. Each member of the army, as well as the friends of its many social institutions, are asked to abstain from all luxuries, and in many cases officers and soldiers have actually determined to do without certain articles of food which are ordinarily considered necessary, in order that by their acts of self-denial they may add financial support to the army and its many different branches of work. The social operations throughout Canada have been greatly developed during the past twelve months, new food and shelters having been opened at Winnipeg and Victoria respectively. As a natural consequence, therefore, the demands upon the Army's funds have increased, and this will require still greater effort to raise a corresponding increased amount during this special self-denial week. The total amount aimed at is $25,000.

THE Regina Leader does not like the BULLETIN's friendly criticism of its unfriendly article on Lieutenant-governor Mackintosh and his connection with the Territorial exhibition. But as the result of the BULLETIN's article it says what it should have said at first: "The government is certainly responsible for the acts of His Honor. In the exhibition matter he was the government's special agent." By establishment of that point the workmen and contractors are likely to get their money, and they will get it all the quicker if the Leader will stick to the point. Indeed if the Leader had taken the straightforward course from the start, stated the facts of which it was so well aware and placed the blame on the right shoulders, public opinion would have compelled the government to find the money to pay their just debts in connection with the exhibition months ago, although the Leader even yet says: "But the government cannot very well pay without the authorization of parliament." The government can as well pay their just debts without authorization of parliament as the workmen and contractors can afford to do without their honestly earned money. Who is the Leader working for any how?

FIRST sleighing of the season on Wednesday. A light snow fall all day.

THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY

INCORPORATED 1670,

Is not, as may be supposed, an antiquated and fossilised institution, but a live, modern, up-to-date business enterprise, placing two and a quarter centuries' experience at the service of the public.

Our stock comprises:

Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots & Shoes

Groceries and Provisions,

Wines, Spirits and Liquors,

Crockery and Glassware.

Of these we carry a complete and varied assortment, carefully selected, to cover all known and anticipated requirements of the district, and besides we are always prepared, through our wide-spread connections and exceptional facilities, to place any unusual order to the best advantage.

The advantages we offer are:

We import direct—we buy first hand, almost invariably from the manufacturers, and pay cash for all our purchases.

We renew often—our goods are always fresh, seasonable, and up to date.

We secure the lowest freight rates on all we import, as we always handle carloads when desirable.

We have no accumulation of old stocks to palm off on the unsuspecting—we have less old goods on our shelves than will be found in any hap-hazard and unsystematic store.

Our expenses are low and are carefully proportioned to our business.

Our margin of profit is very low and carefully adjusted—we never price our goods at what they will stand but at the lowest figures at which we can afford to sell them.

We are therefore doing business on the best business principles and under the most advantageous conditions and place these advantages at the service of our customers. Our effort is not merely to sell our goods but to satisfy purchasers and give them the best value obtainable.

Special attention is given to orders by mail. When inconvenient to make your purchases personally, write us, giving a full description of goods wanted, and prompt delivery will be made in accordance with your instructions. You will effect as good a bargain thus as you would personally. Cash should accompany all orders for shipment by mail, but express parcels may be C. O. D.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOVEMBER 28th, 1895.

WESTERN RAILWAYS.

The Toronto Globe of Nov. 20th, has an able and exhaustive article on the railway question in the west. The following are specimen bricks:

California roads fixed the rate on ore according to their value as determined by assay, and there are business men in British Columbia and in the other western provinces who declare that their rates of freight are graded according to the profits they are able to make out of their enterprises, and that they work for the railway rather than for themselves. One hears few charges of discrimination between individuals, one of the most fatal of railway powers when exercised as on the American roads before the advent of the Interstate commission. But, as will be seen, discrimination between localities, only less mortal than discrimination between individuals, seems to be freely practised, the local rate is raised to the point of confiscation, and a thorough investigation would very probably show that some heavy shippers enjoy advantageous arrangements. It is true that the mountain section is a heavy piece of road, but an examination of the figures will show that this does not account for these remarkable discriminations. In truth, if one compares rates from Winnipeg to Vancouver with rates from Calgary to Vancouver, one would have to conclude that in cases no charge at all is made for the mountain section. In Manitoba one finds some feeling against freight rates, but this feeling is far more intense in the Territories and on the coast. The charge commonly made in British Columbia is that the province has been farmed out to monopoly, as California was handed over, bound hand and foot, to the American Pacific roads. So the moment one sets foot in the Territories the question of freight rates is raised, and your ears ring with the story until you reach Victoria. It would be idle to deny that heavy local charges are essential to the maintenance of the railway, but the best pen that ever served monopoly cannot justify some of the local rates that prevail in the Territories and in British Columbia. Even the passenger rates are a serious hardship. In Manitoba the rate is four cents a mile, in the Northwest five cents, and there are no reduced rates for return tickets. For example, the distance from Toronto to Hamilton is 39 miles, the single fare $1.20, and the return fare $2; but under the rate that prevails in the Territories the single fare would be $1.95 and the return fare just double this amount. Residents at Calgary and other points east of the mountains, who require to ship to Eastern Canada or beyond, have found it profitable to ship through to Vancouver, more than six hundred miles further west in order to get the competing rate at that point, and thence ship the same goods back over the mountains and on to the eastward. Revelstoke is nearly four hundred miles east of Vancouver, but it is not unusual to have goods shipped from eastern markets sent on through to Vancouver and re-shipped back to Revelstoke. In these cases the through rate to Vancouver and the local rate back to Revelstoke seem to total less than the rate direct to Revelstoke. So the local rate to Vancouver and the through rate back to the eastern markets seem to total less than the rate from Calgary direct to the eastern centres. At least, shippers resort to these extraordinary manoeuvres, and the presumption is that they are moved by some other motive than a philanthropic desire to feed the railway. The rate on coal from Anthracite to Vancouver, in car lots, is $5 a ton. The distance is 565 miles. Nova Scotia coal, brought from the coal beds 600 miles distant, is sold in Montreal for $5.50 net to householders. Coal from the mines of Pennsylvania, freighted for more than 400 miles, is sold in Toronto at $4.50 to $5 a ton; that is the charge for carriage over the mountain section of the Canadian Pacific equals the cost of mining in Pennsylvania, handling for shipment, freightage to Toronto, and retailers' profits. At Calgary, 80 miles from the mines at Anthracite, coal retails at $7.75 a ton. The rate on a carload of potatoes from Ashcroft to Vancouver, 205 miles, is $85, for less than a full car, 47 cents a hundred. Potatoes sell at railway points in western Ontario for 20 cents a bag (90 pounds), and in Toronto at 35 cents a bag retail, or 40 cents a hundred. The rate on a certain machine, manufactured at Montreal, is $10 from the place of manufacture to Toronto; $25 from Montreal to Australia; more than double this figure from Montreal to Victoria, B. C.; and the same charge that carries the machine from Montreal to Victoria would carry a similar machine from New York to Victoria.

The Calgary & Edmonton Railway Company was incorporated in 1890. The length as projected is 340 miles, of which 295 miles of road has been constructed. The promoters received the usual land grant of 6,400 acres per mile, and mail subsidy of $80,000. The subsidy is to be paid direct to the London agents as trustees for the bondholders. The bonding powers given to the company were to the amount of $25,000 per mile. With this the enterprise was launched. Almost immediately the road passed under the operation of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Many of its promoters and contractors were closely identified with that company. At the session of Parliament of 1891 the Canadian Pacific obtained permission to issue its own 4 per cent. consolidated debenture stock to the amount of $20,000 per mile of the Calgary & Edmonton Railway. This was stated to be for the purpose of "satisfying or acquiring obligations entered into in respect of the acquisition, construction, completion or equipment of the Calgary & Edmonton railway." The 295 miles of the road were opened in October, 1892, the Canadian Pacific agreeing to operate it for the first five years, furnish the rolling stock and retain all income other than the subsidy. To estimate correctly the resources which from various channels have been provided in the construction and operation of this 295 miles of prairie road is scarcely possible upon the information available. But a more or less approximation may be calculated from the above facts. Railways sometimes calculate their land grant upon a basis of three dollars an acre. The Calgary & Edmonton Company will not say that half that figure is an excessive basis. That gives $2,832,000 under that head. To this amount must be added the road's bonded indebtedness, consisting of $5,458,940 first mortgage 6 per cent. 20-year bonds. It may be that these bonds were subjected to a discount, but the measure of guarantee which was given them by means of the mail subsidy no doubt materially strengthened them. Roughly speaking, therefore, and leaving out of the addition the mail subsidies, the promoters raised upon the road in bonds and land the amount of $28,000 a mile. The cost of the road, according to the company's own figures, has been $3,717,882, or $13,000 a mile. Actually, however, the construction probably did not cost more than $7,000 a mile. The road-bed is now in very poor condition. At this rate the total cost was $2,065,000. Over against this is a bonded debt of five and a half millions and the 1,888,000 acres of land grant.

The following is the concluding sentence: All these carrying corporations are the offspring of parliament, the holders of public franchises, and their right of taxation ought to be limited to a reasonable profit on a reasonable investment, although we may not violate solemn bargains nor unload even upon corporations that we have unwisely created the consequences of our own folly.

The Globe has done good service to the Northwest in taking up this railway rates question and dealing with it so plainly and thoroughly, but it destroys a great deal of the good effect by decrying the possibilities of the Hudson's Bay railway. That the Hudson's Bay railway in its present hands is only a fake everybody outside of Manitoba will agree, but that does not say that if it were properly constructed and kept under proper control it would not be of vast benefit to the commerce of Manitoba and the west and assist very greatly in the development of all the west. The West wants it, and Globe or no Globe it will have it sooner or later, but certainly we had better do without it for a while longer than have it under any terms that we are likely to get regarding it as long as Hugh Sutherland manipulates the scheme.

LAC LA BICHE.

EDITOR BULLETIN.

Sir: At a public meeting held here on 14th inst., it was decided to petition the government for a grant for seed grain and potatoes, to enable the settlers here to sow their fields next spring, the drouth of the past summer having rendered the crop almost nothing, there being only a return of 1,057 bushels of potatoes, out of 183 sown; wheat sown 113, yield 521; oats sown 32, yield 250; barley sown 15, yield 38. Many settlers sowed nothing as they had no seed and no means of getting any. The amount of grain and potatoes asked for is not great, but if granted will greatly assist the people here, who will not have a bushel to sow next spring. The strict enforcement of the fishery regulations rendered necessary by the decrease in the fish from fishing during the spawning season, has impressed our people with the necessity of farming more than they have done, and they will be further encouraged to do so by the fact that the Roman Catholic mission has erected and will shortly have running a 17 horse power steam grist mill. The settlers feel that having done their best to obey the fishery regulations they are entitled to relief from the government in the shape of grain and potatoes; for it is only by farming they can make up for the loss of the fish and be enabled to live, and unless the grain is given them by the government, there is no chance of their getting any, any other way. Most of them being very poor, anything they make this winter must be spent on food and clothes. The petition goes on to the minister of interior at once. The number of bushels of grain asked for is 120 bushels of wheat and 250 bushels of potatoes, and we would ask you to bring all your influence to bear, and do what you can to obtain for us our request. By so doing you will earn the thanks of all our people.

Trusting that you will excuse the liberty we have taken in asking for your good offices in this matter.

I remain
Yours faithfully,
ALEX. HAMELIN,
Chairman of meeting.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

The wind up of the season, for the rifle association, was the match which took place on Thursday afternoon last. "Dagos versus Kanucks." The day was cold and windy, notwithstanding which some capital scores were made. The prize was an oyster supper, to be given by the losing team and as the "Kanucks" won, the "Dagos" on Saturday evening entertained them, and some friends, right royally, and as pleasant an evening as possible was spent with speeches, song and instrumental music.

A prominent settler remarked to the writer, regarding the closing of the land offices at Beaver lake and Westakwin, and the non-opening of colonization roads from the South Edmonton railway station to Beaver lake, and from Fort Saskatchewan to Beaver lake: "No where outside of a lunatic asylum is so little intelligence shown, as by the federal authorities in its dealing with the development of our country; in fact he continued, it is doubtful if any body of lunatics could have got everything into a greater state of chaos than exists in Northern Alberta at the present time. All our railway lands gone for the purpose of assisting the C. P. R. to keep out any opposition, and it is supposed that some more crooked work is now going on with the petroleum at Athabasca Landing." This is not the opinion of one settler, but it expresses that of every intelligent settler in the country. There have been so many disgraceful things occur in Canada's public affairs (no matter whether the liberal or conservative party were in power) that it is no wonder everybody is disgusted. Canada's politics are no more pure than that of Tammany Hall, of New York. Both are a disgrace to the 19th century.

Nov. 25th, 1895.

SHAMEFUL.

Winnipeg Saturday Night of Nov. 16th, has a comment by the editor, C. L. Shaw, at one time of Edmonton, in regard to the punishment inflicted upon the police constable, who was on guard when the Indian who afterwards shot Sgt. Colebrook, broke jail at Duck lake. As already noted in the BULLETIN, this man besides being sentenced to imprisonment was made to dig the grave of Sgt. Colebrook as an extra punishment:

"Supposing that the corporal was culpably negligent and deserved severe punishment, reduction of rank, imprisonment, stoppage of pay, or confinement, or all four, surely within these bounds adequate punishment could have been given him, both salutary and exemplary; but that he should be held responsible for the subsequent acts of the escaped prisoner seems unreasonable. It did not affect his neglect of duty, whether the Indian became a horse thief, or a convert at the neighboring mission. The average policeman is kept busy accounting for his own misdemeanors, without becoming responsible for those of escaped Indians. Some officer made this man dig Colebrook's grave, as part punishment for the escape of the Indian, made this man dig the grave of the man whose death he could not be justly blamed for, but with the sequence of events and the act of his commanding officer, would lead him to suppose the world held him responsible. What refinement of cruelty this must have been to a man not utterly bad, only the man himself can know. To think that such an act took place in our own land, and not in some semi-barbarous Oriental country seems hard to believe, but without a word of comment the dispatches state the above facts. A member of the Northwest mounted police, through thoughtless neglect, is practically accused of being the cause of the subsequent murder of a comrade, and therefore, to punish him, is compelled to dig his grave. Oh! the shame of it."

GENERAL NEWS.

The Moose Jaw Times of Nov. 22nd, reports a heavy fall of snow on the 17th.

The new Kaslo and Shewan railway has begun to haul out ores from Sandon to Kaslo.

Hugh Sutherland is reported to be again in Ottawa working his patent Hudson's Bay scheme in view of the approaching elections.

The coal output at Lethbridge is increasing daily, and has now reached 600 tons. The company are now running extra coal trains every day over the south road.

The Moose Jaw Times speaking of immigration says: "A contented and prosperous people are the best immigration agents, and the sooner we interest ourselves in those who are here the sooner will the country be settled."

An Ottawa despatch of Nov. 22: A. W. Ross was here to-day on departmental business. Ross will take up his residence next week in Toronto. He has been appointed resident director and manager of the Colonial Mutual Insurance Co. While he intends giving up politics, the chances are he will sit for Lingar next session. That will depend upon circumstances. Ross would not be interviewed on the matter.

The record of business transacted by the lands branch of the department of the interior this year shows the number of home-stead entries for the season just closed not equal to last year, there being a falling off in the number of settlers. The report, however, is not unsatisfactory, as the actual entries made by bona fide new arrivals has not decreased to the extent expected.

Winnipeg Commercial, Vancouver correspondence, Nov. 9th: "Dairy butter is quite scarce, and the quotation is nominal at 20c., in the absence of offerings. Choice creamery is held at 30c. Eastern Canada creamery is offering. Cured meats have declined 2c. Eggs have again advanced 2c. and are now held at 22c. per dozen. Pork is lower. Salt salmon has advanced sharply to $7.50 per barrel. Fruit is advancing in price, and some varieties are out of the market."

SUPREME COURT JUDGMENT.

In the case of Gabel vs. Gable, before Honorable Mr. Justice Scott at Edmonton, plaintiff sued defendant for money lent by plaintiff's mother to defendant. The evidence at trial was held to prove that this money was lent by plaintiff's mother to defendant under an agreement that the defendant should pay the money to the plaintiff upon plaintiff's marriage. Plaintiff being married sued defendant for the money. Defendant claimed that plaintiff's mother was indebted to him in an amount equal to the claim. Plaintiff claimed that defendant was trustee for the money, and that plaintiff was entitled to the money under agreement above mentioned. Held on authority of Tweddle and Atkinson, 1 B. & S. 393, that judgment should be for defendant. W. Short for plaintiff, C. M. Woodworth for defendant.

SUPREME COURT JUDGMENT.

During the sale proceedings in this matter an important point of law was decided. On the 6th November, 1892, M. E. Ibbotson gave a mortgage to the Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Co. and thereafter a mortgage to Messrs. S. S. & H. C. Taylor. A transfer of the land in question had been registered in the name of M. E. Ibbotson, but the certificate of ownership still remained in the name of W. G. Ibbotson, who shortly after this gave a mortgage to W. H. Kinnistien of Calgary, on the same land. Thereafter M. E. Ibbotson gave a mortgage to Lafferty & Moore, and finally a certificate of ownership was made out in the name of M. E. Ibbotson.

Upon the sale having been made by the Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Co., W. H. Kinnistien through his advocate, P. L. McNamara claimed a priority over all other mortgages, owing to the fact that the certificate of ownership was in the name of W. G. Ibbotson at the time Kinnistien's mortgage was registered, and he claimed that at that time a mortgage given by W. G. Ibbotson would have priority over any mortgage given by any other party. Some other complications arose from the fact that Kinnistien's mortgage, though filed, was not registered, until after the certificate of ownership had been made out in the name of M. E. Ibbotson. However, this latter fact was not referred to in the judgment. After quite a serious contestation it has been decided by the Honorable Mr. Justice Rouleau, distinguishing this case from the cases in re Rivers and Wilkie and Jellett, that the Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Co. had legal priority over all other mortgages. C. M. Woodworth for Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Co., P. L. McNamara for W. H. Kinnistien.

LAC LA BICHE.

F. C. Gilchrist, fisheries inspector and H. S. Young, fisheries guardian, arrived from Lac la Biche on Tuesday with Jas. Norm. The close season ended at Lac la Biche and in all the lakes north of the Saskatchewan on Nov. 15th. Several seizures of nets and fish were made on Mr. Gilchrist's arrival, but after that the law was observed. Four families, who were in particularly poor circumstances were allowed a net each during the whole of the spawning season, and sixteen families were allowed a net each after Nov. 1st. License fees will not be exacted from people fishing for their own use during the winter. The inspector discussed with the people the object of the department in preserving the fish and pointed out to them that the fish must be in the lake in winter as well as summer and that therefore they could catch them. In pursuance of his directions several of the people will follow the fish out to deep water with their nets in order to find where they stop during the winter. Mr. Gilchrist is of opinion that the fish congregate in the deep places which have a muddy bottom, in which kind of bottom the white fish find their principal food. If they find the winter haunts of the whitefish they will not doubt be able to make a fair catch during the winter, and if they do not find them they will still be able to catch some jackfish and suckers with hook and line through the ice. There are about thirty-one families at the lake half of whom are in fair circumstances, but the remaining half are very poor and have no means of support but the fish, and if they cannot get the fish they will no doubt suffer from hunger. About twenty families have left their homes on the lake and have gone into the northern woods to trap for the winter and to fish in lakes which are out of the present jurisdiction of the inspector. These families are poor, but the men of them are active and able to hunt, as some of those who remain at the lake cannot, and cannot undertake the hardship and exposure of winter fishing even should it be successful. As the little crops planted last summer proved a comparative failure from drouth, the food supply in the settlement is very limited, and the outlook for the winter is not promising.

Prince Albert Times: "It is now some weeks since Sergt. Colebrooke was, while in the faithful discharge of his duty, murdered in cold blood, and as yet the murderer is still at large although it is currently reported that he is within the boundaries of an Indian reserve."

H. Abbott, general superintendent of the western division of the Canadian Pacific railway, said at Seattle recently when asked if the Canadian Pacific would make further extensions in the Kootenay: "The probabilities are that the extension from Lethbridge west, through the Crow's Nest pass will be commenced next year, and the road from Robson to Roseland will no doubt be constructed. In building the latter branch they will be obliged to make the distance long in order to save grades."

ASSIGNEE'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on the 30th day of October, 1892, George Hutton, of Edmonton, Farmer and Implement Agent, made and executed an assignment to me as assignee of his real and personal property, debts, credits and choses in action, sealable under execution.

All parties and persons who are in any manner indebted to said assignor, are required within ten (10) days from the date of this notice to attend at my office at the Hutton machinery building, and make a settlement of the same.

All creditors of the said assignor are requested to attend at the office of Messrs. S. S. & H. C. Taylor, Barristers, Edmonton, and sign the Deed of Assignment, where the same is exposed for signature.
